October 22, 2013 10:10 PM EDT

TORONTO, Oct. 22, 2013 /PRNewswire/ - Celestica Inc. (NYSE, TSX: CLS), a global leader in the delivery of end-to-end product lifecycle solutions, today announced that it has received the 2013 Supplier of the Year award from EMC. The distinction was awarded during EMC's annual Supplier Day in Boston, Massachusetts.

The 2013 Supplier of the Year award recognizes Celestica for developing innovative solutions in support of EMC's business goals and continued operational excellence throughout its global network.

"We are pleased to recognize Celestica with the Don Watson Distinguished Supplier of the Year award," said Steve Cleary, Chief Procurement Officer at EMC. "The award recognizes a company for demonstrating their commitment to excellence, passion for quality, and for fulfilling our requirements. Celestica embodies all of these traits."

"It is an honour to be recognized by EMC, and this award reflects our passion and performance in serving this valued customer over the last 12 years," said Craig Muhlhauser, CEO, Celestica. "This recognition is testament to our global EMC team demonstrating the dedication to continuous improvement and working together to deliver innovative solutions that consistently meet or exceed EMC's expectations. Thank you to our partner, EMC, for acknowledging our commitment and contribution to their business success."
